Electoral Bylaws

2 Purpose

- 2.1 ~~The election procedures outlined in the Policy Manual are valid for the election in the Annual General Meeting or by the Board for the National Councillors and the National Executive.~~
- These Electoral Bylaws provide for:
- (a) the selection by the Members of a preferred slate of Leadership Team nominees at a General Meeting held before the Annual General Meeting;
 - (b) the presentation of that slate to the Members at the Annual General Meeting for formal election;
 - (c) the collective election of the slate through a single ordinary resolution where the election is uncontested;
 - (d) the continued right of Members to nominate additional eligible candidates from the floor at the Annual General Meeting; and
 - (e) a fair election process where additional nominations result in more candidates than available Leadership Team positions.
 - (f) The selection of the Slate of Nominees at the Nomination Meeting is preliminary only. No individual becomes a member of the Leadership Team by reason of being selected for the Slate of Nominees. Members of the Leadership Team are formally elected by the Members at the Annual General Meeting.

8 Voting

8.1 ~~The election procedures must include a stipulation that, to be elected, a candidate must receive the absolute majority of the vote, abstentions excluded.~~

- ~~– The election must be held by means of a secret ballot.~~
- ~~– To be elected, a candidate must receive the absolute majority of the members voting (50% +1), abstentions excluded.~~
- ~~– Each Member shall submit a ballot comprised of a ranked list of candidates.~~
- ~~– The member is able to rank as many or as few of the candidates as desired.~~
 - ~~– For the President, Vice President Academic, Vice President Services, and Vice President Finance & Administration positions: one candidate may be ranked as a first choice.~~
 - ~~– Should less than one candidate receive the majority of first-choice votes outright, the single candidate runoff procedure shall be enacted.~~
- ~~– For the National Councillor positions:~~
 - ~~– up to two distinct candidates may be ranked equally as first choices.~~
 - ~~– One candidate may be ranked for each rank other than first.~~
 - ~~– Should fewer than two candidates receive majorities of first-choice votes outright, the dual candidate runoff procedure shall be enacted.~~
- ~~– The current National Executive, excluding any National Executive member who is standing for election, shall submit a ballot comprised of a ranked list of candidates.~~
 - ~~– The National Executive must rank all candidates, each receiving a unique rank~~
 - ~~– This ballot will only be viewed in the event of a tie, as outlined below.~~
- ~~– The number of first-choice votes for each candidate is counted.~~

Voting shall occur by means of secret ballot using a transferable-vote system.

- (a) For elections to a single position, the Instant-Runoff Voting (IRV) method shall be used.
- ~~– If one candidate has received more than 50% of the vote, this candidate is declared the winner, and the procedure is complete.~~
 - i. In the event that no candidate obtains more than 50% of the vote following this procedure, no candidate shall be declared elected or nominated, and a new election may be held.

- ~~– In the event that no candidate has received more than 50% of the vote, the candidate who received the lowest number of first choice votes is dropped from the running.~~
- ~~– In the event that two or more candidates are tied in receiving the lowest number of first-place votes, all tied candidates are dropped from the running, except in the case when this would reduce the remaining eligible candidates to zero.~~
 - ~~– In such a case, the candidate to be dropped will be the candidate with the lower rank on the National Executive ballot.~~
 - ~~– Only one candidate will be dropped in this case.~~
- ~~– On all ballots with the dropped candidate ranked as a first choice, the candidate ranked second on the ballot is treated as having been ranked first, unless the second choice candidate has already been dropped.~~
 - ~~– In this case, the next choice will be counted as first, etc.~~
- ~~– The number of first choice votes for each candidate is counted again.~~
- ~~– If there is only one candidate remaining, the Uncontested Elections procedures outlined in uncontested elections shall apply.~~
- ~~– Repeat steps 2–6 until one winner is declared.~~
- ~~– The number of first choice votes for each candidate is counted.~~
- ~~– If two or more candidates have each received more than 50% of the vote, the top two candidates are declared the winners, and the procedure is complete.~~
- ~~– In the event that there is only one candidate with more than 50% of the vote, or zero candidates with more than 50% of the vote, the candidate who received the lowest number of first choice votes is dropped from the running.~~
- ~~– In the event that two or more candidates are tied in receiving the lowest number of first-place votes, all tied candidates are dropped from the running, except in the case when this would reduce the remaining eligible candidates to one.~~
 - ~~– In such a case, the candidate to be dropped will be the candidate with the lower rank on the National Executive ballot.~~
 - ~~– Only one candidate will be dropped.~~
- ~~– On all ballots with the dropped candidate ranked as a first choice, the candidate ranked second on the ballot is treated as having been ranked first, unless the second choice candidate has already been dropped.~~
 - ~~– In this case, the next choice will be counted as first, etc.~~
- ~~– The number of first choice votes for each candidate is counted again.~~
- ~~– If only one candidate receives more than 50% of the vote when there are two candidates remaining, that person is elected, and the remaining National Councillor position is reopened. If no candidates receive more than 50% of the vote when there are two candidates remaining, no one is elected, and the elections are held again.~~
- ~~– Repeat steps 2–6 until two winners are declared.~~

(b) Where two or more positions are to be filled, the positions shall be filled sequentially using IRV. Following the election or nomination of each candidate, that candidate shall be removed from the remaining ballots, and the process shall be repeated until all positions have been filled.

i. A candidate must obtain more than 50% of the votes to be declared elected or nominated, as the case may be.

(c) The National Executive shall submit a ranked list of candidates to the CRO to only be used in the event of a tie.

11 Amendments

11.1 ~~The Bylaws of the Federation may be repealed or amended by resolution of the Annual General Assembly where no less than two thirds (2/3) active members present must agree.~~

~~– Amendments to these Bylaws that are simply corrective measures to ensure accurate translation and grammatical structure may be passed by the Board with a two thirds (2/3) majority, provided these amendments do not change the concept or spirit of the point being amended.~~

~~– The Board may prescribe such rules and regulations consistent with these bylaws relating to the management and operation of the Federation as they deem expedient, provided that such rules and regulations shall have force and effect only until the next annual meeting of the members of the Federation when they shall be confirmed, and failing such confirmation at such annual meeting of members shall at and from that time cease to have any force and effect.~~

Subject to the Articles, the Board may, by Resolution, make, amend or repeal any provisions of these Bylaws that regulate the activities or affairs of the CFES, except in respect of matters referred to in subsection 197(1) of the Act.
